Wealthy Residents Rap High Tax Rate and Charge Money Is Being Wasted

Newport, July 29.—A spirited debate that threatened to border on personalities took place in Newport's millionaire Casino Theatre, Bellevue avenue, today, when the fashionable Summer colony members of the Four Hundred gathered in a meeting sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce to protest against high taxation.

The blue blood of Newport was there.

In a spirited speech Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont faced Mayor Jeremiah P. Mahoney and charged that Newport roads were "terrible." Mrs. Belmont occupies a palatial residence known as the "Marble Palace."

DEFENDS CITY FATHERS.

"What I would like to know, Mr. Mayor," said the famous suffragist, "is what becomes of our money after it is paid into the city treasury. I am an alumnus resident here. I demand just taxation and just treatment. The roads I travel when I leave my home are a disgrace to Newport. Tell us, please, what you are doing with our money."

Mayor Mahoney went into a lengthy discussion of the city's finances and said the only solution of the tax conditions being presented by the millionaire Summer colony was to have a revolution.

When Dr. Richard C. Mattoon, famous Four Hundred physician, charged that Newport was poorly governed, former Mayor S. P. Garrison leaped to his feet and cried: "Newport is as well governed as New York city even though you haven't heard how to govern it."

SCORE TAX RATE.

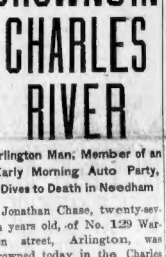

Harry A. Titus, member of the Chamber of Commerce, said:

"Among the fashionable present were Dr. Henry Barton Jones, Miss Maude Wetmore, Miss and Mrs. Marion Eppley, Mrs. Cornelius Van derbilt, Mrs. George Henry Warren, John DuSalle and Mrs. Charles L. B. Robinson.

"Several took the floor when discussion was invited and protested against the present tax rate, which they termed exorbitant."

"Auction houses should not be the basis for property valuation," said Dr. Mattoon.

4 MISSING U. S. SUBS ARE SAFE WITH FLEET

By Associated Press.

Los Angeles, July 29.—All twelve of the submarines en route from Los Angeles to Hampton Roads, Va., under convoy of the tender Beaver, were said at the local submarine base to be accounted for today.

Two of the submarines are out of commission and are being towed. Early reports to the effect that four of the submarines were missing grew out of the statement of Captain Thomas W. Sheridan, master of the liner City of Honolulu, that he had sighted a badly smoking submarine off the Lower California coast.

Here's Why It Costs So Much to Dine on Old Broadway

New York, July 29.—4970? How do they get that way? Testimony in the divorce suit of Mrs. Gladys Wagner against Charles C. Wagner, part owner of the Club Maurice, reveals why a snack in Broadway's lobsterias brings forth a check that looks like a first mortgage on the place.

Here, Wagner says that Maurice and Walton, the dancing team employed by her husband, received $600 a week, plus $1 cover charge for every person who sat at a table.

Witnesses were brought in automobiles to Salem police headquarters last night and there were reports that the suspected slayer would be rounded up today. It was evident that the probe had taken an acute turn.

The state and local police had Tony Costello, a Spaniard, on the grill for hours yesterday and resumed his examination today. They say Tony has told them conflicting stories and believe he can tell more about the man last seen with Henry McElhaney than he has told.

COSTELLO'S STORY.

The substance of the story told by Tony Costello to the police follows: "I saw the man with Henry McElhaney that Tuesday. He looked like a Pole or Frenchman. He was big, about five feet ten or more and had a blue suit and green shirt, much wider than my cap and tilted down on the left side of his head. He had light sandy hair and green eyes and a full face. His complexion was fair."

"I was driving my wagon up Highland avenue toward Anderson road. I had a load of ashes to fill in a hollow near the pond. I passed Henry McElhaney and the man opposite Mr. McElhaney's store. I did not know him. I got a good look at him. He could not get into one of 1,000 men. When I came abreast of them Henry had started across the road as if to enter McElhaney's store, but the man must have called him back as I thought it might be Henry's father whom I have never seen, but when Henry's father died I wanted to know if he was the boy."

"I have ridden all through that country on my horse hunting for him. I have watched cars and buses before that several times on Pine street, watching the children of Lowell Grammar school as they came to school."

SALEM SLAYER'S ARRESTS AT HAND

Appeal of Youth Who Killed Cambridge Policeman Came Too Late

Judge Louis S. Cox of Superior Court ruled today that the motion for a new trial filed by counsel for Rocco Scicchitano, condemned slayer of Patrolman Thomas J. Riley, has been received too late.

According to Judge Cox's decision, there is nothing left for the doomed man except an appeal for a commutation of sentence, which may be made before the Governor's Council.

Scicchitano, condemned to die in the electric chair June 11, has received two reprieves, the last one extending to August 23. He is represented by Attorney Joseph P. Molloy.

WOOD SAYS LODGE STOOD FOR NEWBERRY

That Senator Henry Cabot Lodge trailed the honor of Massachusetts in the dust by his efforts to keep Truman H. Newberry in the United States Senate was V. J. Chand, a Russell A. Wood, candidate for the Republican nomination, in a spirited attack on "Newberryism."

"Henry Cabot Lodge voted to keep in the Senate a man this State would have hounded out of office. Lodge has defamed public opinion in the Commonwealth and in court, sanctifying the evil he is so loath to condemn than the evil itself," said Mr. Wood.

Taken in Dope Raid

By the Associated Press.

New York, July 29.—Philly Celine and his wife, better known as Jane Herrick, aviator and captain in the aviation section of the police reserves, were arraigned in West Side Court charged respectively with violating the anti-narcotic and the prohibition laws.

The Philadelphia district bordering on Central Park was raided as police raided Celine's apartment. Jars of wine, labels of well known brands of whiskey and gin, two hypodermic syringes, and five bottles containing drugs, the police say, were seized.

Mrs. Celine learned to fly while serving as a French war nurse. Later she was an instrument in aviation at a Minnie flying field.

TELLS HOW SHE LURED 'VIC' FROM FAMILY

Artist Provided for Charlotte Bullster While Wife Was Wage-Earner

The divorced wife of Albert Victor Scearles, now living in Boston, charged today that his new bride, recently wedded to Scearles several months ago, was responsible for the breaking up of the Scearles home and the divorce.

It was Charlotte Irene Bullster who stirred love's fire in the heart of Albert Victor Scearles, when he was struggling as an artist in Providence and his brave little wife worked in a department store to support him and give him chance for fame.

She was the mother of three, this little woman; had been, in fact, when she married her. With the artist she loved saw his road to fortune paved with jagged rocks she said: "Don't give up, all we need is bread for the babies and I'll starve!" so she went to work.

Today Victor Scearles is a millionaire and his wife is not left the little woman. She has been left at the roadside via divorce.

"The artist's wife is Charlotte Irene Bullster."

"I'll get him," she said to him. Scearles had in 1917. "I'll win him from you. Wait and see."

And in five years she has made good her threat and now sits across the table from the millionaire publisher, mistress of his millions.

TRAINED BY WIFE.

It is in reality a moving picture drama, but reversed. In the picture it must end with Justice. In the Scearles' real life it ends with the woman who slaved to help her husband to success, braided and lacerated the woman who broke up her home, the conqueror.

Picture a home in want, a wife working to buy food for her idle husband and the husband who is supporting the family.

ASK SUPREME COURT TO DISBAR PELLETT

Definite action toward disbarment proceedings against former district attorney Joseph M. Pelletier from practice in the United States Supreme Court has been taken by United States District Attorney Henry H. C. Pelletier, who has been ordered by Attorney General Daugherty at Washington.

MRS. S. W. WARD FINED $25 FOR SPEEDING

New York, July 29.—Mrs. Walter S. Ward of New Rochelle, whose husband is under indictment in Westchester for murder in connection with the slaying last May of Clarence Peters, near the Xenon Reservoir, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Fred P. Shaffer at Yonkers to speeding. She was fined $25, paid.

DECLARES PATRON WILL NOT WITHDRAW

William J. Paton, candidate for district attorney of Suffolk County, will not withdraw in favor of Joseph C. Pelletier, his campaign manager, announced today. Mr. Paton's papers, the manager declared, would be filed with the Secretary of State on Monday.

AMERICAN KILLED IN GERMAN AIR CRASH

Berlin, July 29 (By the Associated Press).—Four persons, one an American, R. G. Murrell, said to be from Alabama, killed in the wreck of a German postal airplane near Hamburg. The other victims were Albert Baugard and Benno Cosewicz, Spaniards, and Pilot Von Gierman.

The accident happened while the plane, with these occupants, was flying through a thick cloud over a forest. The four victims were found in a charge of a number of an automobile from Henry L. Cobb of Swampscott, when arraigned today before Judge Nathaniel W. Howe. He was given a suspended sentence of a year in the House of Correction, fined $100 and costs and ordered to pay $400 for damages to the car during the three weeks he was in Lawrence, where it was said he had been driving for some time to a woman of the city.

POLICEMAN HELD AS RECKLESS DRIVER

Patrolman Guy E. Whitman of the Athens street station, South Boston, was arraigned in Somerville Court today, charged with operating an automobile to endanger lives and with driving without a certificate of registration. He pleaded not guilty and was held for trial until August 14. Whitman is alleged to have run down a motorcyclist on Broadway, Somerville, injuring two riders.

NEW SEASON COMMENCES TONIGHT

Downtown Boston, which has been as gloomy as a busted crapehooter for the past three weeks, will perk up a bit now that the lights are being turned on at the Selwyn and the Tremont. And in another week the Wilbur will open with a third musical show.

Tonight, the ducky troupe which is playing "Shuffle Along" will cluster at the Selwyn. Judging by the interest expressed around town this dark town show is going to draw a capacity house. Word of its remarkable success has drifted over from New York.

For a musical comedy company composed entirely of negroes to win success in competition with white folks in a white man's country obviously means that the black folk have something, not only as good as the Caucasian offering, but probably a lot better.

Remember when you see a colored boy on a football team, you always see a remarkable player. Of course. If he wasn't an awful lot better than the white boy, some white boy would have the job. It's so with "Shuffle Along."

Miller and Lyles, who are the chief comedians of this show, wrote the book. They have long been popular in vaudeville and have headed several black companies on the road. They have about all the black talent in the country around them in "Shuffle Along."

PAMPHLET OF PROMISES IN HANDS OF ATTORNEY

GOLD POURS IN.
Henry, the soda-pouring "prophet," was author of the book, probably the most "promising" book ever compiled. Each of his 500 salesmen he armed with one and forth into the vineyards and poured, to read the humble and pluck thereof.
"Read that book" said Henry to E. E. Manookian, a former sales-

"The ground-floor stuff," continued the ex-salesman, "proved the bunk as I only got one dividend and was then told the company was withholding dividends to add to the capital which would make the company that much stronger. Well," Mr. Manookian wiped his brow. "It got very strong. I can smell it now."

In Monday's Boston American will be revealed further contents of the "Book of Promises."

The week has been one big success. To the officials of the Nantasket Beach Steamship Co. all credit is due for their part in the work. Not an accident marred the passage of this vast number of little tots and their mothers to or from the beaches. To the proprietors of the Sagamore Baths, the thanks of the thousands of guests is merited. Paragon Park officials share in the award of credit. Everything possible was done by them to further the enjoyment of their little customers.

MAYOR DEMANDS REMOVAL OF "NO PARKING HERE" SIGNS

"NO PARKING HERE!" THIS IS THE TYPE OF SIDE-walk sign which Mayor Curley indignantly calls illegal and an injustice to pedestrians. He has asked Street Commissioner Dunn to order them removed. They block sidewalk traffic and are unsightly, the Mayor avers. The two at the top were snapped on Summer street. Miss Isabel McGovern (at bottom) says she'll park anywhere she likes. Brown, Isabel.

ANOTHER WORTHY Feat! Mrs. Della Dwyer of St. Botolph street, Back Bay, who has just arrived in Los Angeles after hiking across the United States.

GIRL HEROINE IS READY FOR THE NEXT STREET ROBBER WHO CHANCES HER Way! Photo-diagram indicates how Miss Jean R. Mandelschig, No. 55 Brunswick street, Roxbury, was knocked down and robbed of $284 on State street in a daring daylight robbery. She screamed and her assailant fled across the street where he was arrested by Traffic Officer Fred Collins (in circle) and Patrolman John Conroy. He gave his name as Frank Podestti of the West End. The money was recovered.

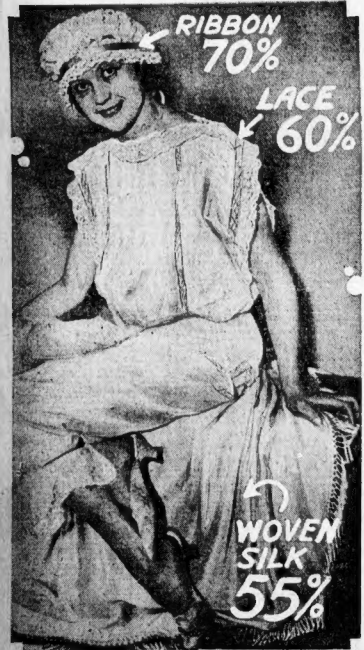

PULLING THE WOOL OVER MILADY'S EYES— And Pulling It Around Her Shoulders Are Two Different Things! This smart looking knitted scarf of brown brushed wool, bordered with natural camel's hair and fringed with tassels, is an exclusive fall fashion to The American. Will not bunch in the back like a cape. (International News Reel).

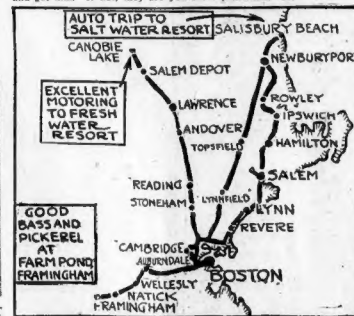

DON'T GO AWAY ON YOUR VACATION WITHOUT Providing For Your Pet! Imagine how you'd feel without a home or food. Little Teddy and Rover are Max's best friend. Don't abuse his trust in you. These pups are guests at the Animal Rescue League. They may have been abandoned. If your pet is here go and get him. If not, they are yours for a nominal fee.

SEE WHAT THE SEA WASHED In! Two more Sea Beauty winners! They are Miss Gladys Connell, Straits' Pond P.O. Mass., (standing) and Miss Helen Cooper of Whit-tier's Corner, Ipswich, Mass. Checks will be mailed to them. Send in your bathing picture. Address Sea Beauty Editor, Boston American.

"LADY MURCURE"— That's her name! Meet up with Marion Muir, Chicago's fastest girl, who is coming to Boston to show our flivvering flappers how to race an auto. She holds a few records in Chi.

TRIPPING AWAY YOUR VACATION ISN'T SUCH A Mean Way to Spend It! For this week end, for instance, we offer you a choice of three excellent motor trips. The amateur like Walters may pick Farm Pond, Framingham, for their stamping ground. Canobie Lake and Salisbury Beach both have their attractions, too.

WHEN THE POET WROTE OF "RIDING THE CREST OF THE WAVES" HE Probably Never Heard of This Super-Power Boat Which Shines the Water at 48 Miles an Hour! The seakicker, which cost a mere $25,000, was designed by the Murray & Tregurtha Corporation, Atlantic, for Edwin A. Grozier of Boston. It has a 300-horsepower engine and is one of the fastest water runabouts on the Atlantic coast. Photo shows Commodore E. C. Purdy testing the craft off Rainsford Island. The boat is now at Mr. Grozier's Summer home, Provincetown.

"OH, MR. CAPTAIN, STOP THE SHIP, WE WANNA GET OFF 'N WALK!" THEY want to go right back to Nantasket, where, as guests of the Boston American, they had more fun than the kitten's catnip. Just picture 4,800 joy-filled youngsters and happy mothers enjoying the cooling trip to Nantasket, a frolic in the sand and sea, and countless amusements, and you have a fair idea of what the American's guests enjoyed. Captain Alex J. Robinson of the Mary Chilton entertained a few of his passengers on the trip.

THE FASHIONABLE WOMEN MUST EVEN TAKE Her Troubles to Slumberland— For in the Republican's new tariff bill even her dainty pajamas must bow to increased duty.
